General Notices

I hope that everyone has had a restful and restorative half term break! I am looking forward to our second Autumn half term on the lead up to Christmas. We have many exciting and important events taking place this half term. We start the first week with our Year 11 MCA6 and College/Apprenticeship information and taster day. I am sure this will be great opportunity for our Year 11's as they embark upon their mock exams. The MCA community will rally around our students and ensure that they feel well supported.

Please make sure you have read our Autumn 1 newsletter which highlights all of the great work and opportunities offered last term. It can be found on our website here: Newsletter-Oct-2025-e.pdf

MCA Wow Week Winners!

Congratulations to Jamie Liles, Eli Nicholson, Oliver Robinson, Danny Claxton and Zaina Ali who are all winners of our 'MCA Wow Week.' A prize of a £10 Amazon gift card was given to these students who entered a special prize draw. Those eligible for the draw were students who had attended all of last week with no late marks or sanctions. Nearly two thirds of the population were eligible and I was delighted to have randomly selected a student from each year group. We will run wow weeks from time to time as a special way to acknowledge excellent attendance, punctuality and a great work ethic.

Fixture Results

U14 boys futsal: MCA 0 - 0 Hartismere, MCA 1 - 1 Samuel Ward. Star performers: James Tunstall, Harry Winstone and Leo Gamzoo.

The boys upheld themselves well and were unlucky to not make it through to the finals.

U16 girls football: MCA vs Newmarket- Star performers - Gracie-Mai Lloyd, Ellecia Paflin, Ella Brewer, Imogen Radford.

MCA showed grit, determination, and a fighting spirit throughout the game against a strong Newmarket side. Unfortunately, we didn't come away with the win. But there was lots to build upon for our next game in the Suffolk Schools Cup.

No upcoming fixtures on the week after half term
